About Enrolment Kit

Hawk Institute manages and conducts its recruitment process in a fair, responsible and detailed manner.

Hawk Institute ensures that recruitment, selection and enrolment process is conducted according to the National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018 (Cth) and the Standards of RTO 2015 (Cth).

At Hawk Institute, we make sure that recruitment is done in a responsible manner by ensuring that students are appropriately qualified for the course for which they seek enrolment which also includes having the necessary English language proficiency, educational qualifications and/or work experience. Students must have sufficient information to enable them to make informed decisions about studying with their chosen course at Hawk Institute in Australia.

The kit has been developed to provide important information in order to manage recruitment, selection and pre training review effectively. It contains information about legislation, policy and procedures at Hawk Institute and other vital information.

Legislation on Recruitment and Enrolment of overseas students

ASQA uses the Standards to ensure nationally consistent, high-quality training and assessment across Australia's vocational education and training (VET) system. These standards are set to protect the interests of all students in Australia's VET system. The Standards guide nationally consistent, high-quality training and assessment services in the vocational education and training system

Clause 5.1-5.3 of the Standards of RTO 2015 (Cth)

As per the clause 5.1-5.3 of the Standards of RTO 2015 (Cth), Hawk Institute is required to provide clear information to prospective students to enable them to decide our RTO i.e. Hawk Institute and courses offered at Hawk Institute are suitable for them, based on their existing skills and knowledge and any specific needs.

Before enrolment or commencement of training and assessment activities, Hawk Institute will provide clear information to students about full course code and title, where the training and/or assessment will take place, the estimated duration, the delivery mode or modes, entry requirements, support services, Fee information, information about the USI, learner's rights.

All the important information will be provided to the students through pre enrolment information like student handbook, prospectus etc.

National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018 (Cth)

National Code 2018 (Cth)

The National Code is a legislative instrument made under the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000 (Cth) and sets nationally consistent standards to support providers to deliver quality education and training to overseas students.

ESOS Act: The Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000 (ESOS Act) sets out the legal framework governing delivery of education to international students in Australia on a student visa. It sets out the registration requirements and the ongoing standards for education providers that offer courses to overseas students.

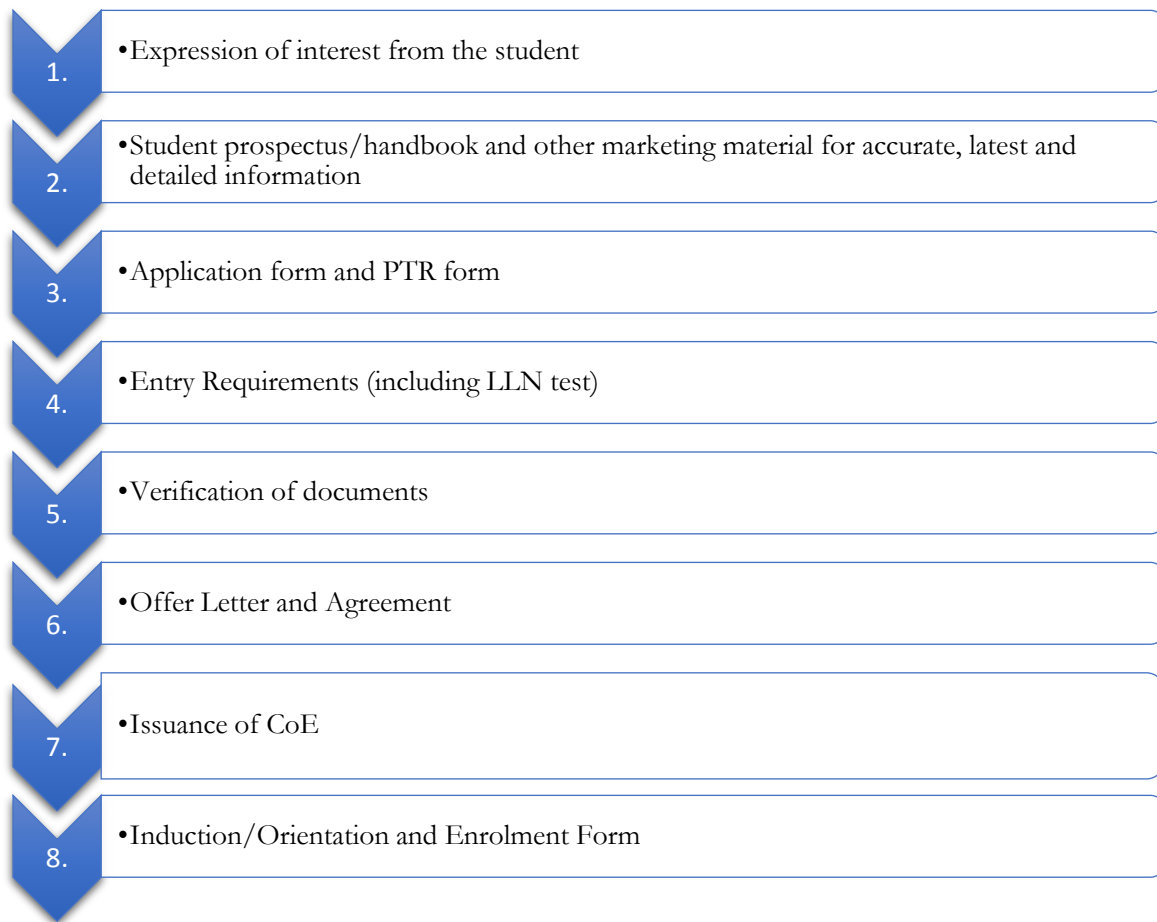

The framework provides a consistent national approach to the registration of education providers so that the quality of the training and the care of students, remains high.

Standard 2: Recruitment of an overseas student

This standard sets out that registered providers must recruit responsibly by ensuring students are appropriately qualified for the course for which they seek enrolment, including having the necessary English language proficiency, educational qualifications and work experience. Students must have sufficient information to enable them to make informed decisions about studying with their chosen registered provider in Australia.

Step by Step Enrolment Process

Information given in this Enrolment kit must be read in conjunction with the student handbook available on Hawk Institute website www.hawkinstitute.edu.au for detailed information on the courses.

Enrolment Policy and Procedures

1. Purpose

Hawk Institute implements this enrolment policy and procedures to ensure that:

- Students selected to study at Hawk Institute are capable of succeeding in their chosen course of study once selected,
- the selection process is conducted in an ethical, fair and equitable manner,
- appropriate access and equity principles are considered in selection criteria,
- the application and selection process are consistent and compliant with relevant standards and legislation.

This policy is created to ensure that prospective learners are advised and aware about the training products that are appropriate to meet the learner's needs, taking into account the individual's existing skills and competencies.

This policy has been implemented to assess the sufficiency of overseas student's English Language proficiency, educational qualifications, or work experience prior to enrolling in the course through Pre-Training review.

2. Responsibility

CEO is responsible for the implementation of this policy and ensuring that relevant staff members are aware about this policy and procedures.

Enrolment officer will be responsible for implementing enrolment procedures at Hawk Institute.

3. Scope

This procedure applies to the admission, selection and processing of applications received from the prospective overseas students who wish to study the courses offered by the Institute.

4. Definitions

Admission: the process by which a prospective student applies for enrolment in a course offered by the Institute is considered and either selected or rejected.

Cth: Commonwealth of Australia

Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF): a nationally consistent set of qualifications for all post-secondary education and training in Australia.

Department of Home Affairs (DHA): The Department of Home Affairs is the Australian Government interior ministry with responsibilities for national security, law enforcement, emergency management, border control, immigration, refugees, citizenship, and multicultural affairs. DHA's Student Visa Program provides student visas to international students to allow them to study on campus onshore with an accredited provider.

ESOS Act (2000): Federal Government act that regulates the provision of education and training services to international students in Australia and which stipulates student VISA conditions. It sets out the legal framework governing delivery of education to overseas students studying in Australia on a student visa.

Confirmation of Enrolment (COE): This is a proof of student enrolment and acceptance of the offer letter and student agreement provided from the Institute. The DHA requires the CoE for visa processing for international students. This is generated through PRISMS for international students.

IELTS: a comprehensive test of English language proficiency designed to assess the ability of non-native speakers of English who intend to study or train in the medium of English.

Letter of Offer: a formal invitation to a prospective student to commence study at the Institute in the course offered.

International Student: a student studying in Australia who is the holder of a student visa granted by the Australian Government.

Pre-Training Review (PTR): a review conducted prior to the enrolment into your course of studies to ensure that the training and assessment provided by Hawk Institute is able to meet the student's individual needs and their host workplace requirements (if applicable).

PRISMS: Acronym for Provider Registration and International Students Management System (PRISMS). This site provides Australian education providers with the Confirmation-of-Enrolment (CoE) facilities required for compliance with the Education Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) legislation.

Selection Process: process undertaken to assess the suitability of the applicants for a program according to specified selection criteria, and subsequent notification of applicant's eligibility to enrol.

SMS: Student Management System.

5. Policy Requirement

- Application procedures will be student-focused, consistently applied and equitable.
- Hawk Institute will ensure that enrolment procedures will be carried out with person who is familiar with Hawk Institute's Enrolment process.
- All applications will be treated fairly, with respect and sensitivity, and in accordance with the Hawk Institute's Privacy Policy.
- Applications for admission will be lodged according to the relevant guidelines provided to the applicants through Student handbook.
- The Institute reserves the right to request additional information from the applicants which may be relevant to their application, including documentation of previous academic records, medical certificates, or other supporting documentation in case of special consideration applications on any of the established grounds for Special Consideration.
- The Institute reserves the right to request applicants' authorisation to obtain further information from the relevant third parties, where necessary, regarding their application.
- Applicant's personal information will remain confidential, protected and will only be utilised as per the Privacy Policy the Data Provision Requirements 2012.

6. Procedures

Step by Step Hawk Institute's Enrolment policy

6.1. Expression of Interest from the student.

Expression of interest will be highly regarded at Hawk Institute. Staff at Hawk Institute will ensure that student receives all the necessary information about their courses at Hawk Institute. Hawk Institute respects student's decision in showing interest at Hawk Institute and ensure that students will be provided with all the support they might need.

6.2. Student handbook and other relevant marketing material

Once a student shows interest to study at Hawk Institute, they will be provided relevant marketing materials like prospectus, students handbook which will contain accurate, latest and all the vital information including (but not limited to):

- Course offered at Hawk Institute, duration of the course including holiday breaks, study requirements and assessments.
- Modes of delivery, location of the course available
- Fees payable, fee refund policy, all the cost included in fee payable.
- Details of complaints and appeals policy and process

6.3. Application form and Pre-Training Review form

Application procedures will be applicant-focused, consistently applied and equitable. All applications shall be treated fairly, with respect and sensitivity.

Once all the enquiring students have received marketing materials like Student handbook or prospectus containing relevant policies and procedures in line with relevant government regulations before enrolment, they will be provided with student Application form.

Prospective applicants from overseas are required to submit an Application Form including Pre-Training Review form prior to the course commencement date to allow adequate time for the Institute to assess the application.

Applicants must sign and date the application form and attach all the supporting documents including:

- Pre-Training Review Form,
- Academic transcripts,
- Evidence of English language level (e.g. IELTS, TOEFL),
- Educational or academic certificates (in both the original language and in English),
- Copy of passport/photo ID,
- Other relevant documents

Other documents that may be required include:

- English translations of all documents
- Academic transcripts from previous educational institutions (if applying for advanced standing/credits)

Applications can be sent via email or in person or through an authorised representative. Upon receipt of the application, a student file will be created, and all relevant details will be recorded.

Applicant's information shall remain confidential between the designated parties.

Enrolment Information

Hawk Institute's enrolment requirements for the courses are:

- A completed application form, PTR form and signed agreement.
- Identification and verification of the documents.

Identity verification: one of which is a photo of the student such as a passport.

6.4. Pre-Training Review (PTR)

Undertake Pre-Training Review (PTR)

Hawk Institute will assess the learner's needs by conducting PTR. PTR will be conducted prior to enrolment to review student's current competencies, student needs, English level, and support* requirements including their oral communication skills, in order to enrol them in the most appropriate course to achieve their intended outcomes.

Applicants are required to fill up the PTR form along with the application form and answer all the questions in a true and correct manner. Any competencies previously acquired will be identified during PTR and the most appropriate qualification for that student to enrol in will be ascertained, including consideration of the likely job outcomes from the development of new competencies and skills (Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) or Credit Transfer).

*Refer to Hawk Institute's Student support and welfare policy for more information on the support services provided by the institute.

The pre-training review ensures that Hawk Institute:

- understands student's reasons for undertaking the course
- ensures suitability of the training to students
- understands student's current competencies and therefore provides opportunities for these to be assessed
- Provides students with information necessary for them to make enrolment decision and to ensure that students reasons for undertaking qualification with Hawk Institute aligns with their previous experience in particular sector (If any), educational and career goals.
- Identifies possible Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and/or Credit Transfer (CT), student's English level, oral communication skills, knowledge on Language Literacy and Numeracy skills.
- check if the training and assessment strategies employed to deliver the course suits the student's needs, and
- Provides relevant support required for the student to succeed in the course.

Enrolment officer will take information from the Application form and Pre training review to identify the support and needs required by the student which includes (but is not limited to) disability support, RPL/CT, English language support, etc.

Guidelines for PTR-To be filled up by Students

1. Students are required to fill up the PTR form which is included in the Application form as "Appendix 1" and read all the details of their course, policies and procedures of the Institute before filling up the answers. Information can be made available from the Student Handbook/Student Prospectus and/or website.
2. Students are required to answer the questions in a true and correct manner. Enrolment officer will ensure that PTR form received along with the application form is completed by the student intending to apply for the course.
3. Enrolment officer will conduct Pre-Training Review Interview via Telephonic Conversation or via Face to Face.
 - PTR Interview conducted via Telephone-If PTR Interview is conducted via telephone, prior to conducting interview, Enrolment officer will check student's identity like name, date of birth and/or course undertaken to ensure that the student has genuinely completed the information by himself/herself. For telephonic Conversation, a communication log will be retained by making notes of the response of the discussion by Enrolment Officer.
 - PTR Interview conducted Face to Face- During face to face PTR interview, prior to conducting interview, Enrolment officer will verify with the student if all the answers have been completed by the student. Discussion notes will be maintained and recorded by Enrolment Officer.
This discussion notes will be recorded in the "Summary of the Discussion" section by the Enrolment Officer (Office use).
4. During both Telephonic and/or Face to face PTR Interview, Enrolment officer will verify the answers provided by the student and check:
 - if the student is aware of the policies, procedures and other information necessary for the students.
 - if the student has received true and accurate information and if they are suitable to undertake the course/s.
5. If students have not received sufficient information i.e. are not aware of the policies, procedures and other information necessary for students to make enrolment decision to study at Hawk Institute, Enrolment officer will provide necessary information to the student required to make enrolment decision.
6. For example: If students have answered "No" or have not answered the questions in the PTR form, Enrolment officer will provide students with true and accurate information so that students can make an informed decision about their enrolment in the courses at Hawk Institute.

7. While conducting PTR, Enrolment officer will take information from the Application form and Pre training review form to identify any support and needs required by the student which includes (but is not limited to) disability support, RPL/CT, English language support, etc.
8. At the final stage of the PTR, the Enrolment officer will fill up the pre training evaluation checklist to ensure that the student is enrolled in a course suitable to his/her needs, abilities, and study/career goals, and to recommend appropriate learning or other support.

Enrolment officer will take holistic approach while assessing student's answers during Pre-Training Review by ensuring that all the answers provided by students aligns with their educational and future goals. Enrolment officer will have a thorough discussion with the student and will offer support or guidance if required.

Application Rejection

Student's Application will be rejected if:

- Student does not have appropriate work experience, level of skills and the ability to undertake the course successfully.
- Enrolment in the course is not aligned with the student's educational goals, work/career goals and/or previous experience in that particular area (if any).
- Student does not meet the entry requirements specified for the course including English requirements, academic requirements, age, and does not have the ability to undertake this course successfully.
- Student does not have appropriate listening and oral communication skills as interpreted during PTR Interview.

Enrolment officer will inform the student before cancelling and discuss reasons for cancellation.

Students are encouraged to contact Hawk Institute administration on 1300 159 461 to ask any doubts they may have.

Note: Hawk Institute does not:

- claim to commit to secure for, or on the student or intending student's behalf, a migration outcome from undertaking any course offered by Hawk Institute.
- claim any job guarantees or employment with its programs.
- guarantee a successful education assessment outcome for the student or intending student.

6.5 Entry Requirements and Policy

Based on the selection and entry requirements for the course, Enrolment officer will review and assess the application and determine whether a letter of offer should be made. To be accepted, the applicant must meet the following:

Pre-training Review (PTR) (refer to section 6.4 for detailed information)

As mentioned above, Pre-Training Review (PTR) is conducted prior to the enrolment into your course of studies to ensure that the training and assessment provided by Hawk Institute is able to meet the student's individual needs. Students are required to fill up the PTR form which is included in the Application form as "Appendix 1". Hawk Institute reviews student's current competencies, student needs, English level, support requirements and oral communication skills, in order to enrol them in the most appropriate course to achieve their intended outcomes. Students are requested to fill all the questions provided in the PTR form attached in the Application form.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and/or Credit Transfer (CT)

If a student is granted with RPL or course credit, Hawk Institute will give a written record of the decision to the overseas student to accept and will retain the written record of acceptance and payment receipts for two years after the overseas student ceases to be an accepted student.

If student is granted with RPL or course credit which will reduce overseas student's length course,

- Students will be informed of the reduced course duration following granting of RPL and ensure the confirmation of enrolment (CoE) is issued only for the reduced duration of the course.
- Any changes in course duration will be reported in PRISMS, if RPL or course credit is granted after the overseas student visa is granted.

Students are requested to refer to “Course Credit and RPL policy” or Student handbook for more details.

English Language Requirements for International students:

International students applying for this course either off-shore or on-shore will require:

- Either a minimum IELTS test score of 5.5 or equivalent for direct entry into a VET course;
 - or, IELTS score of 5.0 or equivalent with an ELICOS course (up to 10 weeks) to be taken before the main VET course;
 - or, IELTS score of 4.5 or equivalent with an ELICOS course (up to 20 weeks) to be taken before the main VET course;

Note: Results older than two years are not acceptable.

OR

- to provide evidence that they have studied in English for at least five years in Australia, Canada, New Zealand, Republic of Ireland, South Africa, United Kingdom or United States.

OR

- to provide evidence that, within two years of their signed written agreement date, they have successfully completed in Australia a foundation course or a Senior Secondary Certificate of Education or a substantial part of a Certificate IV or higher-level qualification, from the Australian Qualifications Framework.

Test evidence table:

English Language Test Providers	Minimum Test Score	Minimum Test Score where combined with at least 10 weeks ELICOS	Minimum test score where combined with at least 20 weeks ELICOS

OR

For above mentioned qualifications, Mature Age students will also be considered without the minimum education requirements considering they have relevant work experience within the chosen area of study and a demonstrated capacity to meet the course requirements. A minimum of 2 years’ experience would normally be expected; however, each case will be reviewed individually with relevant work experience evidence in the form of an employment reference letter on company letterhead, work samples and curriculum vitae submitted will be considered. Such learner will be accessed for possible RPL opportunities and their course duration and volume of learning will be adjusted accordingly, if any RPL is granted.

For BSB60120 - Advanced Diploma of Business, applicant should have successfully completed a Diploma or Advanced Diploma from the BSB Training Package (current or superseded equivalent versions).

or

Have two years equivalent full-time relevant workplace experience in an operational or leadership role in an enterprise.

Language, Literacy and Numeracy test (LLN)

Students undertaking the courses at Hawk Institute must possess sound Numeracy skills since it requires them to do calculations or any other course related work. To determine this, all students wanting to study at Hawk Institute are required to undertake LLN test prior to the commencement of the course. Based on the test outcome, students may be identified as requiring internal support services and/or external support services.

LLN test will be conducted on campus by using an ACSF mapped online LLN assessment tool - LLN Robot - under the supervision of qualified LLN assessor.

All students are required to undertake a language, literacy and numeracy test (LLN) according to the following qualification:

Qualifications	Performance Level
BSB40120-Certificate IV in Business	ACSF Level 3
BSB50120-Diploma of Business	ACSF Level 3
BSB60120-Advanced Diploma of Business	ACSF Level 4
BSB80120 - Graduate Diploma of Management (Learning)	ACSF Level 4

Students are required to achieve expected performance level as per their qualification. Where a student does not achieve the required LLN performance level score for the qualification into which they are seeking enrolment, LLN support* will be provided to the student. This will be done to ensure that student achieves the required performance level. LLN Assessor will determine where students might require support, and when an application may be rejected. A student failing to demonstrate the LLN performance level in all the components will have his/her application rejected and students will be referred to explore other training pathways.

LLN support-If students do not meet the recommended English and/or LLN requirements, students will be referred for additional support which will be provided by the institute with ACSF Support Plan or students may also be asked to take further Language, literacy and numeracy training, such as ELICOS programs to ensure that students are provided with support and proper guidance. Hawk Institute offers ELICOS programs.

Computer Literacy Requirements

All students enrolling into Hawk Institute courses must have basic computer skills. Student are required to fill in the questions related to computer and internet skills in the Pre-Training Review form attached along the application form. Students who do not possess basic computing skills will be provided with basic computer using support. Students may contact Hawk Institute for any further information or assistance on 1300 159 461.

Minimum age requirements

Students must be above 18 years of age while filling up the application form.

Materials and Equipment Required

Hawk Institute will provide access to computers with required resources including access to internet during classroom hours, however, to work on the assignments and tasks for self-study, all learners are expected to have access to a laptop or computer with the Windows 7 operating system or higher. Students must have an active email address for communication and be contactable by phone (mobile or landline) and by mail (postal address). All learners are expected to have access to MS office application such as Microsoft Word, an email platform.

Additional Requirements

- Pre-training Review (PTR)-refer to section 6.4 of this policy
- Language, Literacy and Numeracy (LLN) Test-refer to section 6.5 of this policy

6.6. Verification of Documents

Verifying English requirements

Hawk Institute's Enrolment officer will check the authenticity of documents submitted along with application and administration team may take following procedures to verify the authenticity of the documents if required.

Verifying English language requirements:

Most test administrators have provisions of checking authenticity of score and test online on their site. Hawk Institute may check authenticity of submitted test score by logging into relevant test site if required.

IELTS

Test evidence may be checked online if submitted test evidence is genuine.

IELTS website has free and secure IELTS Results Verification Service allows organisations to quickly verify that an applicant is presenting in a genuine Test Report Form by checking that the results you receive matches with the results held on the IELTS database. Click in link below

<https://www.ielts.org/ielts-for-organisations/processing-and-verifying-ielts-results>

TOEFL: Test evidence may be checked online if submitted test evidence is genuine.

<https://portal.ets.org/instport/public/signin>

Pearson Test of English (PTE): Test evidence may be checked online if submitted test evidence is genuine.

<https://www8.pearsonvue.com/affiliate/reporting/plt/LoginPage.htm>

Student's admission may be denied if the documents submitted by the students are not authentic. Students will receive a call to verify for the same.

6.7. Letter of Offer

Hawk Institute will issue Letter of Offer to successful applicants after all the documents have been verified. The offer letter will include all detailed instructions and conditions for accepting the student agreement (student agreement is incorporated in the offer letter itself). Enrolment officer will be responsible for signing the Letter of Offer and Student Agreement to be sent to the applicants.

- Applicants who do not meet the entry requirements will be notified in writing. Where applicable, unsuccessful applicants shall be offered alternative study options.
- Letter of Offer and Student Agreement letter will be sent via email to the students or their nominated representative.
- A copy of Letter of Offer and Student Agreement will be kept in the student's file/profile.

Acceptance of offer letter

Applicants must accept the Letter of Offer by the due date and return the signed Student Agreement, accompanied by confirmation of payment of tuition fees and Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC), as outlined in Letter of Offer. The Department of Home Affairs (DHA) requires you to maintain OSHC for the duration of your time on a student visa in Australia. If student does not have an OSHC, Hawk Institute will assist you in arranging OSHC from amongst several providers of OSHC in Australia, for the duration of your study.

Cancellation of offer letter

Hawk Institute reserves the right to withdraw the offer of admission and cancel the enrolment of any student where/when the Institute identifies such an offer was made on the basis of incomplete or inaccurate information supplied by the applicant or an applicant's representative.

6.8. Issuance of Confirmation of Enrolment (COE) Letter

- Hawk Institute will send CoE letter once the signed student agreement along with the confirmation of the payment of the fees is received,
- There is a condition of Language, Literacy and Numeracy Test (LLN) before course commencement.

- Enrolment officer will confirm the receipt of tuition fees and will approve the issuance of CoE.
- CoE will be prepared and generated as per the PRISMS User Guide for international students,
- Prior to the issuance of CoE, student's application file will be checked to ensure if all requirements have been met. This will be done using the Enrolment quality checklist (Appendix 2).
- A copy of CoE will then be sent to the student, or an authorised representative, via email,
- A copy of the CoE will be filed in the student's file and the Student Management System will be updated, and
- CoE will be used by the students to apply for a student visa (where applicable).

Conditional Offer:

Some applicants may be issued a Conditional Letter of Offer, if most entry requirements are met and the applicant can meet the remaining entry requirements in the near future. Applicants with a conditional Letter of Offer must meet the conditions of the offer before their enrolment is finalised.

6.9. Enrolment Form

Students are required to complete Student Enrolment form (Appendix 1) on Orientation day prior to the course commencement. Enrolment form must be filled up by the student. It is done to ensure that the Institute receives current and latest contact details of students.

Language Literacy and Numeracy test

As mentioned above in the entry requirements section, all students wanting to study at Hawk Institute are required to undertake LLN Test prior to the commencement of the course. LLN test will be conducted on campus by using an ACSF mapped online LLN assessment tool - LLN Robot (<https://tlrg.com.au>), under supervision of qualified LLN assessor.

Education agents or any third party will not be authorised to conduct PTR or LLN test on behalf of Hawk Institute. LLN will be conducted under supervision of qualified assessors at the Institute.

Students are required to bring their photo ID such as passport or driver's license to authenticate their identification.

Kindly refer to LLN policy for more details which can be made available from the Institute.

7. Deferment and Suspension

This standard sets out that registered provider i.e. Hawk Institute will appropriately manage the enrolment of their overseas students and ensure that all the necessary information about enrolments has been provided to the relevant government department by maintaining updated information in the Provider Registration and International Student Management System (PRISMS) database. Under compassionate or compelling circumstances, students will be able to defer, suspend or cancel their enrolment. Hawk Institute may suspend or cancel a student's enrolment including (but not limited to) on the basis of:

- misbehaviour by the student,
- Student's failure to pay an amount he or she was required to pay the Institute to undertake or continue the course as stated in the written agreement.
- a breach of course progress or attendance requirements by the overseas student, which must occur in accordance with Standard 8 (Overseas student visa requirements).

Kindly refer to Deferral, suspension and cancellation policy of Hawk Institute for more details.

8. Transfer between Registered Providers

Hawk Institute will not knowingly enrol an overseas student seeking to transfer from another registered provider's course prior to the overseas student completing six months of his/her principal course, except where any of the following apply:

- Releasing registered provider, or the course in which the overseas student is enrolled, has ceased to be registered.
- The releasing registered provider has had a sanction imposed on its registration by the ESOS agency that prevents the overseas students from continuing his/her course at that registered provider.
- Releasing registered provider has agreed to the overseas student's release and recorded the date of effect and reason for release in PRISMS.
- Any government sponsor of the overseas student considers the change to be in the best interest of that student and has provided written support for the change.

For more information on transfer between registered providers, please refer to Hawk Institute's Transfer between providers policy available on Hawk Institute's website.

9. Copies of Documents

Students are responsible for keeping a copy of the student's agreement and receipts of any payments of tuition fees or non-tuition fees.

Hawk Institute will retain a copy of the written agreement and payment receipts, for at least two years after the overseas student ceases to be an accepted student.
